

SEDBERGH INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

Resources Policy
Version	2024.1
Effective from	April 2024
Extent of policy	Sedbergh International Summer School
Policy owner	Gemma Newton
Review by	March 2025
Frequency	Annual
Circulation	Teaching and activity staff; Parents (by request)
Publication	Teaching staff induction

Introduction

The resources chosen for the Summer School come from a variety of sources, some of which are outlined below.

Teaching Resources
Resource	Source	Approximate cost	Reviewed
ISS Curriculum	Director of Studies' collection of resources, lessons plans etc from various online and textbook sources (developed over years of teaching and work as DOS). All available on shared OneDrive, accessible by staff's ISS emails.	Unknown – time taken to gather online resources, printing costs, etc.	Annually
	Teachers' own resources (signed off by DOS)	n/a	During course
Textbooks	Online book sellers	£300 - £400	Annually
Misc. resources – dice, counters, games etc	Director of Studies' own collection; online retailers such as Amazon, retailers such as WH Smith.	£100 - £200	Annually
Stationery – sticky notes, pens, pencils etc	Sedbergh School's own book room or online retailers such as Amazon.	£100 - £300	Annually
Activity Resources
Resource	Source	Approximate cost	Reviewed
Sports and games equipment –	Some provided by main Senior/Prep Schools, some bought from online retailers such as	£200 - £300	Annually

tennis rackets, footballs, etc	Amazon, some bought from retailers such as Sports Direct.
Snacks, refreshments and prizes (e.g. hot chocolate for chocolate time)	Pound Land and other retailers such as WH Smith, when not being provided by school.	£100 - £150	Annually
DVDs for movie nights	Some provided by Senior and Prep Schools, some bought from online retailers or shops such as Amazon, HMV, etc. or downloaded from paid subscription services such as Amazon Prime, Netflix etc.	£50-£100	Annually
Arts and crafts supplies	Online retailers such as Amazon, retailers such as WH Smith.	£150-£200	Annually